

On 15 November 2023, 12 students from the Circus Arts CCA participated in the Extraordinary Celebrations 2023, Singapore's largest inclusive concert, graced by the president and his wife, Mr and Mrs Tharman. In a successful collaboration with Mee Toh School, Katong School not only delivered an impressive performance showcasing talents in Poi, balancing acts, and diabolo but also demonstrated the meaningful impact of inclusive collaboration. The students exhibited confidence and showmanship, making both schools proud during the event. The joint effort exemplified the beauty of inclusivity in the performing arts.
